

YLS + INSPIRECORPS SESSION 2
STEERING COMMITTEE

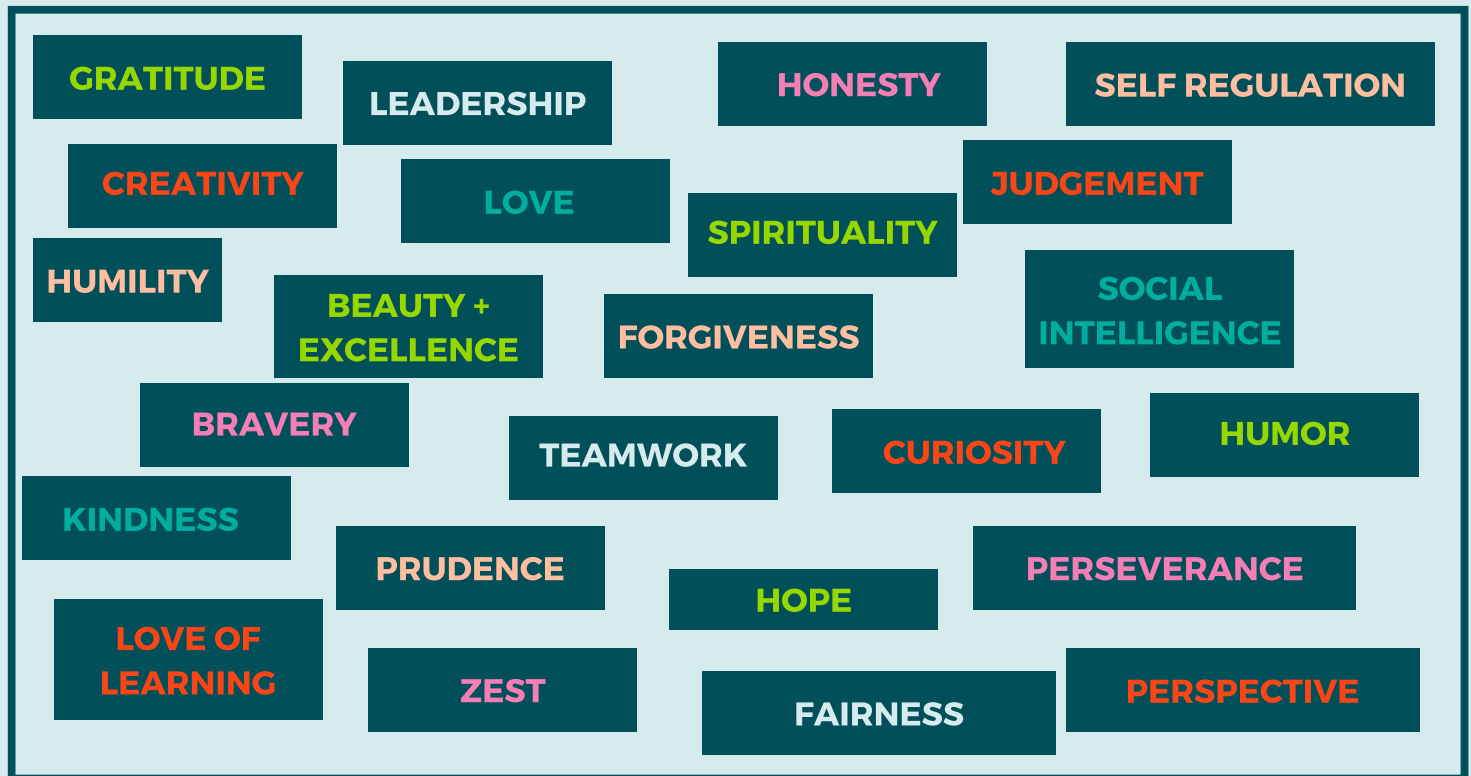

"Inspiration takes work. It doesn't always come naturally, and I find as a leader I have to work at it. I have to be conscious, I have to push at it. But it's so worth it."

CLIFF BOGUE, MD,
CHAIR OF PEDIATRICS, YALE SCHOOL OF MEDICINE AND
CHIEF MEDICAL OFFICER, YALE NEW HAVEN
CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

GROUP STRENGTHS ACTIVITY

Pick one of your signature strengths that you think will be especially important to the success of leading these initiatives. Share what it is and how you will bring it forward in this Steering Committee.

Leader Summit: Crucible Moments

Think about a challenging moment that has defined you in some way. Reflect on your crucible moment - what you learned, how it inspired you, and how it informed how you lead today.

Where am I inspired to grow as a leader in 2021?

What are my most important leadership values and strengths?

What is one way that I feel inspired to stretch and grow professionally as a leader?

Imagining the end of 2021, what does success look like for this goal?

Who can support me in working on this goal?
