

The world needs your inspiration.

It needs your dreams and aspirations and your ambition.

It needs the gifts you've been given, and to know that your inspiration matters because they matter.

The world needs your inspiration.

It needs your hope and your faith in the unknown and the belief that things can get better.

The world needs your inspiration.

This will not be easy, there will be days when you want to give up and in those moments you must remember why you are doing this and what it is for and let that serve as the strength and inspiration to keep going.

So let's keep dreaming.

Let's keep inspiring each other to rest and renew, to take care of ourselves and each other so that we can have our best days more often.

Let's get up early and go to bed late and support one another, let's do what it takes to get it done.

Because the world needs your inspiration.
